GREETING AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

(Please register your attendance on the red attendance pad, located at the right end of each pew.)

* OPENING HYMN

Faith of Our Fathers

No. 710

* CALL TO WORSHIP

Based on Psalm 84

Leader: How lovely is your dwelling place, Lord Almighty!

People: My soul yearns, even faints, for the courts of the Lord.
My heart and my flesh cry out for the living God.

Leader: Blessed are those who dwell in your house; they are ever praising you.

Blessed are those whose strength is in you, whose hearts are set on pilgrimage.

People: Better is one day in your courts than a thousand elsewhere;
I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than dwell in the tents of the wicked.

All: Lord Almighty, blessed is the one who trust in you.

JOYS AND CONCERNS

PASTORAL PRAYER

Please contact the church office to share any prayer concerns you may have.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. AMEN.

OFFERTORY

Alleluia, Sing to Jesus
James Williams, baritone

arr. Mark Hayes

* DOXOLOGY

No. 94

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;

Praise God, all creatures here below: Alleluia! Alleluia!

Praise God, the source of all our gifts! Praise Jesus Christ, whose power uplifts!

Praise the Spirit, Holy Spirit! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Please turn off your cell phone or set it to silent-mode in consideration for other worshippers. Thank you.

Clothe

A Teen

Clothe-a-Teen

June is Clothe-a-Teen month for HOPE of Southern Indiana. This program helps low-income families to purchase back to school clothes for middle and high school students. This is a valuable program that directly impacts the student's self-esteem those first few days of school. Church and Society is still taking donations for Clothe-a-Teen. Please consider making a donation so Trinity can reach its goal of clothing 75 teens at $100 each. Thank you!

You can give donations per your usual method with Clothe-a-Teen in the memo.

For more information, contact Jan McCauley, at 812-948-5055 or fdoxiemom2@aol.com.

SERMON*Bless Me Too, Daddy!*

Rev. Chris Neikirk

BASIC THEME:

Deception leads to dire consequences for the deceiver, the one being deceived, and those who might be connected to both individuals. Sometimes we are misled because we are naive or want desperately to believe in an alternate reality or because we want to have faith in the deceiver. Sometimes, we are deceived due to no fault of our own. Oh, what a tangled web we weave... In ancient times, a father only had one blessing to bestow on his firstborn. Thankfully, God has unlimited blessing to bestow on all of his children.

SERMON SNAPSHOT (KEY POINTS):

We know parents are supposed to have favorites, but some do. Isaac loved Esau, but Rebekah loved Jacob. When Isaac was old and frail, Rebekah and Jacob conspired to deceive him and cheat Esau out of his father's blessing. This deception caused irreparable damage to an already fractured and dysfunctional family. Esau was left to beg for a blessing that could not be given.

SO WHAT?

Have you experienced hurt and deception at the hands of those who were supposed to support and protect you? Does the pain affect you and those relationships still? Is there hope for reconciliation? Do you need to seek the wisdom of the Lord as you attempt to resolve past issues within yourself and in your relationships? Forgiveness is power.

upcoming in worshipSummer Worship Series: Practically Christian. . . What Matters?*July 17 – September 25, 2022

John Wesley and early Methodists were particularly concerned about inviting people to experience God's grace and to grow in their knowledge and love of God through disciplined Christian living. They placed primary emphasis on Christian living, on putting faith and love into action. This emphasis on what Wesley referred to as "practical divinity" has continued to be a hallmark of United Methodism today. (umc.org – Our Wesleyan Heritage) How we practically live out our Christian faith is dictated, in part, by identifying what matters? What matters to God should influence both our beliefs and our actions.

Scripture: Genesis 27: 27-38 (NIV)

²⁷ So he went to him and kissed him. When Isaac caught the smell of his clothes, he blessed him and said, “Ah, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field that the LORD has blessed. ²⁸ May God give you heaven’s dew and earth’s richness— an abundance of grain and new wine. ²⁹ May nations serve you and peoples bow down to you. Be lord over your brothers, and may the sons of your mother bow down to you. May those who curse you be cursed and those who bless you be blessed.” ³⁰ After Isaac finished blessing him, and Jacob had scarcely left his father’s presence, his brother Esau came in from hunting. ³¹ He too prepared some tasty food and brought it to his father. Then he said to him, “My father, please sit up and eat some of my game, so that you may give me your blessing.” ³² His father Isaac asked him, “Who are you?” “I am your son,” he answered, “your firstborn, Esau.” ³³ Isaac trembled violently and said, “Who was it, then, that hunted game and brought it to me? I ate it just before you came and I blessed him—and indeed he will be blessed!” ³⁴ When Esau heard his father’s words, he burst out with a loud and bitter cry and said to his father, “Bless me—me too, my father!” ³⁵ But he said, “Your brother came deceitfully and took your blessing.” ³⁶ Esau said, “Isn’t he rightly named Jacob? This is the second time he has taken advantage of me: He took my birthright, and now he’s taken my blessing!” Then he asked, “Haven’t you reserved any blessing for me?” ³⁷ Isaac answered Esau, “I have made him lord over you and have made all his relatives his servants, and I have sustained him with grain and new wine. So what can I possibly do for you, my son?” ³⁸ Esau said to his father, “Do you have only one blessing, my father? Bless me too, my father!” Then Esau wept aloud.

trinity kids vbs summer programing:

Vacation Bible Study (VBS) on Friday and Saturday evenings. I hope that more families can join us for these mini VBS events. Even if your family can only make one the sessions, come learn and play at the pool as you experience Jesus' stories about water. Each day focuses on a cool pool theme as we grow in biblical knowledge.

VBS Pool Party is for children ages 5 through finished 4th grade. At 5:30 pm we will have a free dinner for all children and volunteer teachers who attend; the VBS program will follow, from 6 pm to 8:30 pm.

Dates:

- Friday June 24 & Saturday June 25
- Friday July 22 & Saturday July 23
